I have a step by step video tutorial for Sunburst granny square on my YT channel*

Sides and Shoulder strap

CH 151

Row 1 - SS 150 in the back loops of the chain, TCH

Row 2: YOSS 150 BLO, TCH

Row 3: SS BLO 150, TCH

Repeat rows 2 and 3 until you have total of 7 rows

To connect you'll start from the corner of the granny square, and into the second chain, of the CH 2 we did in the corner.

Start SS across the whole side of the square, connecting one granny square to one side of the long strap you did, you should have 16 stitches total

Then let go of the strap and SS across top side of the square, 17 SS

Get your strap again, make sure it's not twisted, then skip 34 stitches (that's how many stitches you have on two side of the square), counting from the bottom of the strap, then start SS the granny square to the strap again, all the way to the next corner

SS the corner, connecting two straps together at the bottom, you should have 7 SS

Get the second granny square and connect it in the same way

Weave in the two ends and you are all done.

CREATIVE PORTFOLIO

PROJECT

This crochet sunburst shoulder bag is the perfect summer bag for cute toddlers. It is an adorable crochet project using the sunburst granny square design that can be made in one evening!
